

Metropolitan Community
Church of Toronto
&
Dances of Universal Peace invite you to an Aramaic Lord's Prayer workshop

Dancing with the Aramaic Jesus—The Lord's Prayer

Saturday, 21 January, 10:00 am – 4:00 pm and 6:30 – 9:00 pm

Metropolitan Community Church of Toronto
115 Simpson Avenue, Toronto

The sounds of the Aramaic language, which Jesus spoke, are rich with ways of knowing the atmosphere within which 1st century men and women—saints, sinners, rich and poor, from all walks of life—were welcomed at the table. The healing ways of Jesus' words are systematically unveiled in the work of Saadi Neil Douglas-Klotz as he opens the door to these teachings anew, with beauty and renewed hospitality. This is truly the Good News!

Jalila Joanne Murray will be coming to Toronto to lead this workshop. The beauty and profound message of the prayer drew her to the Dances of Universal Peace. She has been leading the Dances in eastern Ontario for 18 years.

To Register: Mail this form to Qahira Jo Oppenheimer, 115 Simpson Avenue, Toronto, ON M4K 1A1, or leave it at the MCC Toronto Information Centre, with a cheque for $40* ($20 under 18 and $30 over 60) payable to MCC Toronto. Work scholarships are available. For further information e-mail: DUP@MCCToronto.com.

Name: _____

Address: _____

Telephone: _____ E-Mail: _____

* The workshop cost includes a vegetarian lunch. The book, Prayers of the Cosmos, by Saadi Neil Douglas-Klotz, will be available for purchase at the workshop.